Creation and Authority of the Judicial Conduct Commission

Although it existed previously as a legislatively created body, Utah's Judicial Conduct Commission (JCC) was constitutionally established in 1984. Constitution of Utah, Article VIII, Section 13. The constitution authorizes the Legislature to statutorily establish the composition and procedures of the JCC. Those provisions are found in Utah Code Ann., Title 78A, Chapter 11.

The JCC is empowered to investigate and conduct confidential hearings regarding complaints against state, county and municipal judges throughout the state. The JCC may recommend the reprimand, censure, suspension, removal, or involuntary retirement of a judge for any of the following reasons:

- action which constitutes willful misconduct in office;
- final conviction of a crime punishable as a felony under state or federal law;
- willful and persistent failure to perform judicial duties;
- disability that seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties; or
- conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice which brings a judicial office into disrepute.

Prior to the implementation of any such JCC recommendation, the Utah Supreme Court reviews the JCC's proceedings as to both law and fact. The Supreme Court then issues an order implementing, rejecting, or modifying the JCC's recommendation.

Dismissals with Warnings Issued by the Judicial Conduct Commission

On September 21, 2021, the Judicial Conduct Commission dismissed two separate complaints with warnings against a District Court judge as to the following Rule violation: Rule 2.5 violation for failing to expeditiously determine matters under submission and failing to resolve issues without unnecessary cost or delay. The matters were under advisement for many months in excess of the periods allowed under the administrative rules. The Judge acknowledged the negative impact of not expeditiously determining these cases and the avoidable delay and unnecessary costs caused by the judge's lack of action. Although the Judicial Council had suspended certain administrative rules during the period of time at issue due to the pandemic, the Judge understands that ethical obligations of diligence under the Code of Judicial Conduct were not suspended. In mitigation, the Commission recognized the impact of the pandemic, the loss of a judicial clerk and staff turnover, the significant personal issues facing the Judge during this time, as well as that the Judge has taken full responsibility for the lack of action, did not intend to violate the Code of Judicial Conduct, was apologetic, and worked with the Commission to resolve these matters. The Commission found that the behavior and misconduct were troubling, but relatively minor for which no public sanction was warranted.
